Commission Halts Reds' Stalling Tactics

Breaks Up Long Talks With POWs

Panmunjom, Thursday (AP)—The head of the Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission today broke up more than half a dozen long, tedious Communist interviews with anti-Red Chinese prisoners of war, saying "This is absurd; it's got to stop someplace."

Usually genial Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya was peremptor as he broke up the dragging sessions between Red "explanation" teams and prisoners who don't want to go back to Red China.

He said he took the action when he found that only one interview had been completed in the first 80 minutes of today's Red persuasion talks to Chinese POWs.

The sessions he halted had run 90 minutes each.

The prisoners involved were removed from the explanation booths and on-the-spot meetings of Indian tent chairmen and fellow NRC representatives were held.

Some meetings resumed after a few minutes.

The Communists appeared to be deliberately stalling the interviews. The sessions moved at the slowest pace today since they began.

Red explainers took every opportunity to argue and walk out. Their reasons seemed petty.

The prisoners howled down the "amnesty message" from Communist Gen. Peng Teh-Huai but went quietly to the explanation booths afterward.

The prisoners seemed calmer than those at yesterday's interviews who overwhelmingly rejected Communist with curses and shouts.

Today's prisoners came from a compound which holds about 450 men.

The Communists apparently dropped overnight a request to talk to 198 Chinese they didn't get around to interviewing yesterday.

The sessions yesterday were nearly as long as today's.

Only three of 265 Chinese prisoners agreed to go home to Red China. And one of these was held back by Indian guards for a sanity hearing.

The Communists have been taking a propaganda beating so far. Of 1,136 Chinese interviewed through Thursday, only 23 elected to go back. Only 39 of 913 North Koreans interviewed have changed their minds.

The men were identified as Martin Chancey, 45, George Watt, 39, and Anthony Krehmarek, 55. Krehmarek is a native of Pittston.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said all three have held ranking positions in operation of the Communist party in the Eastern United States.

The three were arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Edward Snodgrass Jr., and jailed in default of $25,000 bond each. Their hearing was continued until next Tuesday.

Eight Young People Killed In Collision

Platte City, Mo., (AP)—Eight persons were killed last night in the collision of two automobiles on U. S. Highway 71 three miles southeast of here. The State Highway Patrol said there were no survivors in either vehicles.

Killed in one car were six Kansas City residents, all in their teens or early 20s. The victims in the second auto were a young married couple from nearby Nashua.

The patrol said the two vehicles crashed head-on.

Rhee Urges Elections In North Korea

Seoul, (AP)—President Syngman Rhee in a gloomy review of peace prospects said yesterday he would step aside if free elections could be held in Red North Korea and went against him.

In written replies to questions submitted by The Associated Press several weeks ago, Rhee also accused the Chinese Reds of colonizing North Korea and reaffirmed his determination to drive them out.

The aged South Korean leader could see little hope for uniting his divided country at a Korean peace conference, accused the Communists of violating the armistice, and charged India with playing the Reds' game in prisoner explanations now in progress at Panmunjom.

Asker for his views on the peace conference, ultimate unification, and free elections, Rhee said that Red tactics since the armistice "confirm our doubts as to the possibility of a peaceful settlement of any questions with the Soviets at the conference."

"We will allow the people of the North to hold the election under the observation of the United Nations," he said. "If the free people of North Korea should elect some one other than the president of the Republic of Korea I would be glad to step aside and let the entire nation hold a nationwide election."

Nobel Prizes Awarded To Two Scientists

Stockholm, Sweden, (AP)—A German chemist who did spade work for the plastics industry and a Dutch physicist who invented a microscope that opens new views in the study of living matter were awarded the 1953 Nobel prizes in chemistry and physics yesterday.

Dr. Hermann Staudinger, 72, of Freiburg, West Germany, whose research in giant molecules paved the way for industrial production of such synthetic commodities as nylon, hosiery, plastic plates and artificial rubber, won the $33,840 prize in chemistry.

Prof. Frits Zernike, 65, of Groningen, the Netherlands, won the $33,840 physics prize for his development of a "phase contrast" microscope that without the application of coloring substances gives scientists a closer view of minute particles of living matter than they have ever had before.

Allies Call For Recess In Peace Talks

Panmunjom, Thursday, (AP)—The Allies today proposed an indefinite recess in the deadlocked preliminary Korean peace talks while two advisers from each side try to settle the dispute over the agenda. The Communists tentatively turned down the proposal.

North Korean delegate, Ki Bok Sok, said the agenda question "must be settled in plenary sessions" and that it would be "inappropriate to refer questions to advisers."

However, he told Arthur H. Dean, U. S. envoy, who made the proposal: "Since your side has made this proposal, our side will make a further study and comment on it tomorrow."

Today's 10th session of the preliminary talks adjourned until 11 a. m. tomorrow (9 p. m. Thursday EST).

These talks, called to arrange a Korean peace conference, have been deadlocked 10 days on the matter of which subject shall be discussed first—who shall attend, or the time and place.

The Reds want to talk first about inviting Asian neutrals. The Allies, sticking to the letter of a U. N. resolution, want to discuss time and place first. Dean has said he would be willing to listen then to Communist discussion about composition of the main conference.

Dean proposed that the advisers could form two subcommittees to work in closed sessions simultaneously, one with composition and the other on time and place.

Although he has been optimistic from the start that some agreement on a peace conference would be reached in these sessions, Dean told the Reds today that despite his attempts to be reasonable the Communists had "persistently refused to enter into any sort of negotiations."

Brothman Declines To Testify

New York (AP)—Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis) said yesterday Abraham Brothman refused to tell the Senate permanent investigations subcommittee whether he is a spy or a Communist.

"He was an uncooperative" witness who refused to answer almost everything," declared McCarthy as he emerged from a closed meeting of his subcommittee.

Brothman, who served a prison term in connection with the Rosenberg atom spy case, turned up Tuesday as an employee of the Techni-Flax Co., in Port Jervis, N. Y. He had worked there about a year, since his release from federal prison.

McCarthy originally announced Tuesday that the firm dealt with radar. Afterward a foreman at the plant said it mostly made gas stove connectors and had nothing to do with radar.

However, the Senator said yesterday that a company official, whose name was not disclosed, told the subcommittee that the firm worked on defense contracts involving radar and that Brothman had "once run of the plant."

Although McCarthy did not identify the witness, Norman Gabori, president of the firm, said it was he.

Gabori denied to newsmen that his firm had any work involving radar, despite McCarthy's insistence.

Brothman accompanied Gabori out from the hearing and reporters asked when he might be called again before McCarthy's subcommittee.

"When he needs a new headline, he'll call me," was Brothman's reply.

Brothman served two years in prison for trying to induce atom spy Harry Gold to lie to a 1947 federal grand jury investigating espionage.

Republicans Hail Election Results In Pennsylvania

Philadelphia (AP)—Pennsylvania went Republican as usual in Tuesday's election and GOP leaders yesterday hailed the result—particularly in Philadelphia where the Democrats were unexpectedly upset—as an omen for certain future victories.

Specifically, they meant the gubernatorial election next year. The Democrats, naturally, didn't look at it quite that way. They voiced "disappointment" but waded optimism for better things in 1954.

These were the major developments:

One — Two Republicans were elected to fill vacancies on the State Superior Court piling up majorities of around 200,000.

Two — The GOP, in a complete form reversal after losing elections in the Quaker City for six years, swept every candidate into office in Philadelphia.

Three — Democrats salvaged a bit of their political pride by electing mayors in Pittsburgh and Scranton to unprecedented third terms.

Four — Voters rejected a proposal for a convention to write a new Constitution that would replace the one now 79 years old.

Elected to 10-year terms on the Superior Court bench were Judge J. C. Colvin Wright of Bedford County and Harold L. Ervin of Delaware County. The losers were Judges John L. Hook of Greene County and W. C. Sheely of Adams County.

In Philadelphia the result was described as stunning, possibly coming as much as a surprise to Republicans as Democrats.

Actually the net effect was this: Two Democrats were tossed out of office — coroner and register of wills — while the GOP retained control of judgeship, magistratral posts and other offices they had held.

With 8,142 of 8,532 precincts reported Wright held a mighty lead in the Superior Court race. The totals: Wright 1,438,324; Ervin 1,384,944; Hook 1,240,563 and Sheely 1,243,746.

One provision to amend the state constitution were approved, three others were rejected.

With 6,429 of 8,532 precincts reported here was the vote for the decided amendments:

1. Permit county treasurers to succeed themselves—321,779 yes, 524,032 no.

2. Allow bedridden veterans to cast ballots—624,676 yes, 262,167 no.

3. Permit Allegheny County Common Pleas judges to reside in quarter sessions courts—341,928 yes, 362,800 no.

The amendment that would authorize the Legislature to delay taxing privately-owned forests until trees are grown and the lumber sold was defeated. With 7,390 precincts reported the vote was 461,260 yes and 478,979 against.

Democrats Eye Control Of Congress

Washington (AP)—Democratic gave Republicans a jolt yesterday and spurred Democratic hopes of recapturing Congress next year and the White House in 1956.

President Eisenhower told his news conference that naturally he is not entirely pleased with the results, but he commented: "I've lost skirmishes before."

Chairman Leonard W. Hall of the Republican National Committee frankly acknowledged the doubt in New Jersey—coupled with Democratic victories in New York City and Virginia—summed up as a blow to the Grand Old Party.

"There is no question about it," Hall said. "As of today, we are in trouble politically."

Some Democratic leaders declared the results constituted a slap if not an outright repudiation of the Eisenhower administration.

Republicans hotly disputed that interpretation. They contended that local issues were paramount in deciding the outcome in most cases and that little national significance was involved.

Republicans found some consolation in Virginia where Republican Ted Dalton lost the gubernatorial race to Democrat Thomas B. Stanley as expected—but gave the Democrats their hottest challenge in modern history.

The election of Robert B. Meyner of Phillipsburg, as New Jersey's first Democratic governor in 10 years, and especially the upset win of a Democrat in the Sixth Congressional District, were widely interpreted as severe blows to the prestige of the Eisenhower administration.

Coming on top of the recent Democratic upset in Wisconsin, it was an especially gloomy Tuesday for the GOP.

New York's Tammany Hall, given up for dead in two previous city elections, was alive and kicking. Robert F. Wagner Jr.'s smashing mayoral victory.

"This is the day for which all of us have been working and waiting," said Tammany leader Carmine DeSapio at the news Wagner piled up a 360,000 plurality over his nearest opponent.

Not since the heyday of Jimmie Walker a quarter century ago have Tammany's prospects seemed so bright and shiny.

Temperatures Dip As Snow Falls In Many Places

By The Associated Press

Rain or drizzle was fairly general yesterday in a belt extending from Central Texas east across the Lower Mississippi Valley and Gulf Coast states and North into Oklahoma, Kansas and Southern Nebraska.

Colorado had some light snow and there were flurries along the Northern Great Lakes and in New England.

Both Buffalo, N. Y., and Chicago had their first snows of the season last night. In both cities there was just a trace.

In Pennsylvania, light snow was falling at Dushore where temperatures were below freezing.

For the sixth day, a heavy, irritating smog blanketed Los Angeles.

Along with the rains and the snow flurries came sharp temperature drops from the northern plains states eastward to the Atlantic.

Chest Drive 75 Per Cent Completed

With 75 per cent of its 1953 goal realized, Monroe County Community Chest will begin a stepped-up drive to complete the campaign next week.

A meeting of all division heads of the Chest drive has been called for Monday, Nov. 9 at 4 p. m. at the Penn-Stroud Hotel, according to M. S. Baldwin, chairman of the campaign.

Next week has been designated as "Clean Up Week" by Chest officials and division chairmen. During the week every effort will be made to bring the Chest "over the top" in collection of pledges and cash donations. The goal is $65,100.

Hall Blames Troubles On Lack Of It

Washington, (AP)—Chairman Leonard W. Hall of the Republican National Committee said last night some of his party's troubles may stem from the fact that the Eisenhower administration's accomplishments so far lack political "it."

Commenting on GOP setbacks in Tuesday's elections in New Jersey, New York City and Virginia, Hall said:

"We have done many things in the nine months that Mr. Eisenhower has been in the office of President. We have cut expenditures. We have reduced the personnel in office. But these things aren't dramatic.

"They are well, they aren't things that have political 'it' if I can put it that way, but they are basic to recover what we call the American way of life.

"I think when we see what happens in the next session of Congress we will have something which the people will be able to really feel and they will know that real things have been accomplished by the Eisenhower administration."

All-Women Council Elected By Town

Emerson, Ark. (AP)—Residents of this Columbia County community awoke yesterday to find they had elected an all-woman city council.

The women were elected by write-ins over the Democratic candidates selected in the primary. They are Mrs. Etola Cochran, Mrs. Urfine Stevens, Jennie Belle Foster, Mrs. Eula Gunnells and Mrs. Gladys Cox.

Only the mayor, W. H. Maloch, survived the upset. He was unopposed.

Czechs, Poles Report Tension Within Red Bloc

Berlin, (AP)—Reports of high tension within the Soviet satellite bloc of Eastern Europe came yesterday from three Czechs who shot their way to freedom and three Poles who crashed into Western Germany.

Feels People Will Back Him In Long Run

By Ed Creagh

Washington (AP)—President Eisenhower declared yesterday that "I've lost skirmishes before."

He voiced firm confidence that in spite of Tuesday's Democratic election victories the American people in the long run will endorse the policies of his administration at the polls.

Eisenhower volunteered these remarks in a brisk, thrust-and-parry news conference at which he also assailed Russia's rebuff of an Anglo-American-French proposal for an early Big Four meeting on Germany and Austria.

The President put on his glasses and, in sharp words spoken with stern emphasis, read a statement asserting that Tuesday's Soviet note showed "no intention to get together but an intention to create as many difficulties as possible."

Yesterday's news conference fell on the first anniversary of Eisenhower's election.

Striding two minutes ahead of the appointed 3 p. m. Eisenhower announced at the outset that quite naturally he was not completely happy with Tuesday's election outcome in some places.

He went on to say, with growing warmth, that it is the administration's job not so much to intervene in elections on behalf of individual candidates as to provide a dynamic foundation for Republican campaigns.

He said he sincerely believes the program his administration he developing will work for the benefit of all Americans, in what he described as a slow but sure process.

During the news conference Eisenhower made two other main points:

One—He thinks the chances are favorable for holding a Korean political conference but there are many factors which might prevent it.

Two—He personally approved the Soil Conservation Service reorganization which Secretary of Agriculture Benson put into effect despite critics' demands that it be delayed. The President added that his Agricultural Advisory Commission approved it, too.

Then, back to domestic politics—a field in which he smilingly described himself as a novice—the President turned aside all efforts to get him to say whether Tuesday's Democratic victories in New Jersey and elsewhere were evidence of dissatisfaction with his administration.

He did declare that a Republican candidate, to get his support, must have a record of honesty and integrity—in other words, that he isn't going to go out and name each Republican candidate and say "I support him."

Let's have no mistake on this, said the President, adding he saw himself misquoted on that point last week.

James C. Hagerty, the President's press secretary, said last week the President favored the election of all Republican candidates everywhere.

Eisenhower agreed, however, that his and Hagerty's remarks added up to a general endorsement of Paul T. Frost, defeated Republican candidate for governor of New Jersey. The President said he meant to endorse GOP candidates in the absence of any information against them.

Republicans In Control Of Council

Bancor—Chief Burgess Hayden B. Pritchard, who gained an overwhelming vote of confidence at the polls Tuesday by defeating Republican Bryden O. Strunk, heads for 1954 with a Republican dominated council.

Until Tuesday's election council here was locked at 6-6 but the defeat of John Farleigh, council president in the Second Ward, and Charles Kern in the Fourth Ward divided the Democratic numbers. Council will look like this after Jan. 1:

Ralph Erdman, Democrat, elected Tuesday over John M. Buzzard, and George B. Plush Sr., and Harry Deshler Sr., both Republicans representing the First Ward.

Arthur Messinger, incumbent Democrat who return after victory Tuesday, Herman Snyder, Republican who defeated Farleigh, and Walter Warrick, Republican, for the Second Ward.

David Price Jr., victorious Republican over Albert Foulkes Tuesday, and John I. Correll and Alfred Counterman, also Republicans, Third Ward.

Pasquale Cinelli Jr., incumbent Democrat who won Tuesday, John Casoli, Republican victor this week, and Louis Trigiani, Democrat, represent Fourth Ward voters.

Pritchard polled 1,505 votes to Strunk's 959 for his clean sweep into office taking the high count in all wards. In the First Ward the vote was 324-125; Second Ward, 337-200; Third Ward, 482-351 and Fourth Ward 362-283.

In another major battle Max Oxford won his fifth term for tax collector by a wide margin over Republican Isaiah Resh, 1,478 to 965.

Voters returned David Stoddard, Republican, to his school director berth and sent Dr. Nicholas Cascaro, Republican, and Quintus LaBar, Democrat to the school board. LaBar polled the highest tally, 1,212 votes. Dr. Cascaro was second with 1,163 and Stoddard third, 1,148. Defeated were Democrats Thomas Taylor, 1,070, and Mrs. Shirley Matlock, 1,050, and Republican Albert Docking, 1,017. All were seeking a six-year term.

Merle Mabius, Democrat scored a triumph for the lone two-year seat, defeating Elwood Freeman, 1,255 to 1,014.

Raymond Traves, Republican, won the auditorship. He was unopposed.

Disaster Film Featured In Graham Movie

Exclusive full-color pictures of the Texas City disaster of 1945 highlight the climax scenes of "Oil Town USA", newest film release of Billy Graham Evangelistic Films to be shown at 7:30 tonight in the East Stroudsburg Junior High School.

The Texas City footage was filmed by a free-lance newspaper photographer in Houston, Texas at the time of the disaster eight years ago. No use was made of the film until Director Dick Ross began to search for authentic scenes to highlight the story of "Oil Town USA". He located the film, unused and in storage, and made arrangements to incorporate it into the moving story of the new Billy Graham picture.

The story centers around the life of a Houston oil millionaire who is brought to an abrupt realization of his need of a religious experience through danger to his daughter's life in the Texas City holocaust.

Featured in the new film are Colleen Townsend Evans, Paul Power, Robert Clarke, Georgia Lee, Ralph Hoopes and the stars of Graham's earlier film "Mr. Texas", Redd Harper and Cindy Walker.

Evangelist Graham and his team are portrayed in their evangelistic crusade in Houston last summer. Parts of the picture were filmed in Rice Stadium where 60,000 persons gathered for American Evangelism's largest throng.

Monroe County Youth for Christ is in charge of arrangements for the showing here.

Vetterlein Tells Kiwanians Of Flight Across Atlantic In Single Engine Airplane

Wayne Vetterlein, Shawnee-on-Deleware, who navigated the small single engine airplane across the Atlantic Ocean for Mrs. Marion Hart late in August, was the speaker at the Stroudsburg Kiwanis Club meeting in the Penn-Stroud Hotel yesterday afternoon.

It was the first trans-ocean flight of a plane of that type since before World War Two, it is said. The speaker, a pilot-navigator of Pan-American Airways, who was introduced by Ray Price Jr., related that when he heard Mrs. Hart was planning the flight he became interested at once and, after considerable maneuvering, was accepted.

Mrs. Hart, 51, was highly praised by the speaker who said she was really a genius. He said originally it had been hoped to make the flight June 21, but there were delays and they didn't get off until the last of August.

Vetterlein, 30, gave many interesting incidents, the weather conditions, radio contacts with other large planes which helped them get correct directions and the like and the final landing at Shannon, Ireland.

The plane was fully equipped with survival equipment and while they were disturbed at times, they were never really worried, he said.

The pilot also spoke briefly of the double decked large planes and their attractive furnishings and accommodations, also the work of the United Nations which he declared he hoped would be able to bring about a happy family in the future for the United States.

Announcement was made that "Dopey Duncan", a radio commentator of Allentown, would be the guest speaker at the ladies' night observance of the club Friday.

Holland Plant Submits Sewage Waste Proposal To Borough

Council Awaits Further Study By Engineers

Holland Manufacturing Co. has submitted a proposal to the borough of Stroudsburg for discharge of wastes they now transfer to lagoons on their property. Pending a study by the borough's consulting engineers, Albright & Friel, council will take no action on the matter.

Proposal was read at council's meeting last night. A copy of the Holland request has been transmitted to the Philadelphia office of Albright & Friel.

These experts of sewage treatment will file a report and recommendation with council on which the borough will base its answer to Holland.

An equity action has been filed by the borough against Holland seeking to prevent that firm from creating an alleged nuisance, which has been the subject of many complaints by First Ward residents.

Holland's request and proposal on sending its wastes to the Stroudsburg treatment works has caused the borough to withhold pressing the suit until the outcome of the treatment proposal is determined.

Tonight council will meet in special session to open bids on improving and expanding the treatment works and on installation of sanitary sewers through all that portion of Stroudsburg west of Pocono Creek.

Albright & Friel and Bernard Bush, district sanitary engineer will attend the meeting. At that time there is a possibility that the Holland proposal will be the subject of some recommendation by Albright & Friel.

An extensive report from Samuel O. Wells, director of Stroudsburg playground, contained recommendations that three shuffleboard courts, outdoor basketball practice courts be added to existing facilities. Mr. Wells also urged painting of present equipment.

The director was high in his praise for the volume of usage, the program directed by Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Serfass and the general maintenance of both playground and pool.

Mr. James Cummings, secretary of board of health reported 261 health cards have been collected by Health Officer Samuel Van Gordon. She said a recent meeting was held with representatives of the Monroe County Medical Society dealing with proposal to revise the health card.

Lt. Francis Regan Wins Medal For Korean Service

Mount Pocono — Lt. Francis R. Regan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Regan, received the Bronze Star for distinguished service in Korea this week in ceremonies at Tobyhanna Signal Corps.

In charge of the ceremony was Col. William M. Mack, commanding officer of the depot.

Lt. Regan, according to Army records, "distinguished himself by meritorious service in Korea during the period from 25 August, 1952 to 25 June, 1953 . . . while serving as a forward observer."

As an observer, Regan was responsible for "directing and adjusting (artillery) fire of his battery from a forward position (with an infantry company) by observation, computation and consultation with commanders of supported troops to determine appropriate targets."

Regan was stationed with the 980th Field Artillery Battalion, 40th Infantry Division.

In a citation accompanying the bronze medal award, the Army cited Lt. Regan's "great value as a liaison officer where his total and thorough grasp of the tactical situation, his knowledge of artillery capabilities and his unflagging zeal made him invaluable in successfully carrying out the battalion's fire support missions."

"Lt. Regan displayed untiring efforts under extreme weather and adverse field conditions and his conduct under fire served as an example to his comrades."

Attending the award ceremony were Regan's parents; Miss Ellen Regan, Rt. Rev. Msgr. C. A. McHugh, Rev. Robert Galligan, Rev. Vincent P. Harrity and key military and civilian personnel at the Signal Corps Depot.

George F. Smith Honored At Rites

Illegal Catch Proves Costly

Five brown trout, termed by Monroe County fish warden Floyd Bachman as some of the best he's ever seen, cost an East Stroudsburg man $50 in fines yesterday.

Bachman said he and John Doebling, county game warden, found the trout at the home of Edward A. Wollyung, 49 Gold St., East Stroudsburg yesterday morning and a few hours later Wollyung paid the fine at a hearing before Justice of the Peace Herbert Bonser in East Stroudsburg.

The 32-year-old man was charged with catching the fish illegally. Trout season closed July 31.

The trout ranged in size from 18 to 24 inches and were reported to have been "gigged" in Sambo Creek, East Stroudsburg. Doebling explained that "gigging" is spearing fish with prongs, using a flashlight to attract the fish to the spot.

Bachman said the unusually large trout were enroute upstream to spawn. The fish were turned over to Sheriff Jacob Altemose at Monroe County jail and will be used to feed prisoners.

Assisting Bachman and Doebling were deputies Elwood Walters and G. Wesley Smith.

There are about 200,000 service stations in the United States.

Three Charged With Violation Of Game Law

A "stake-out" in Middle Smithfield Township late Tuesday night resulted in the apprehension of three men by Monroe County game wardens on charges of killing and possessing deer in closed season.

John Doebling, county game warden said last night $160 fines were imposed on each of the three men who also paid costs a few hours after their arrests at a hearing before Justice of the Peace Herbert Bonser in East Stroudsburg.

Doebling said Layton Lesh, 59, and Raymon Zacharias, 27, both of Marshalls Creek, were charged with assisting and killing the animal and Elwood Herring, 37, of East Stroudsburg RD2 and Zacharias were charged with possessing the deer in closed season.

The game warden said he and deputies Fred Batchelar and Frank J. Smith came across the deer shortly after it was shot at 5 p.m., then left lay in the woods.

At 10 p.m., Doebling said, Zacharias and Herring arrived at the spot and were putting the deer in their car when arrested.

Doebling said Zacharias shot the deer from a distance of 20 feet using a shotgun with a rifle slug. He said Zacharias leaned over Lesh who was driving the car and fired at the deer, described as a small doe weighing 45 pounds.

Nu-Maid Hosiery To Curtail Operations Until Jan. 15 Due To Heavy Inventories

Nu-Maid Hosiery on Monroe-Carbon Trail west of Stroudsburg will curtail operations starting around Nov. 13 with a layoff which will last tentatively to around Jan. 15. Thomas Carson, president of Mammoth Independent Union said yesterday.

Mr. Carson said a notice from Edward Roskind, New York, president of Nu-Maid, indicated all employees except operators of 66-gauge knitting machines and a skeleton force of seamers, examiners and menders, will be furloughed around Nov. 13.

The 66-gauge machine operators and skeleton force of seamers, examiners and finishers will remain at work until current orders are filled.

Back of the decision to call the lay-off for a period extending tentatively to Jan. 15, as a heavy stock of boxed hosiery on the hands of the firm, Carson said the management advised MIU.

A slackening in the Fall season created the backlog of boxed stock, Carson said the MIU was advised.

There are four 66-gauge machines now operating on current orders. The plant has been operating with three knitting shifts and one shift of seamers, examiners and menders.

In the past several months the firm has been eliminating some knitting machines in favor of more modern equipment which produces a finer gauge hosiery, MIU officials said.

Surviving are his wife, the former Rosa Bellinger; a son, John, of Whitehall; one daughter, Anita, of Philadelphia; two grandchildren; one brother, Ralph, of Marion, Mich.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. in Kresge funeral home, Rev. Clay Reed, Whitehall, and Rev. Alton Albright officiating.

Interment will be made in Gilbert Cemetery. Friends may call Friday from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Kresge funeral home.

Republicans Win All But One Contest

Newfoundland Republican candidates, as expected, swept to easy victories in all except one race in Tuesday's election in Greene and Decher Townships.

The reversal of form came in the Greene Township supervisor contest where Royal Kreiger (Rep.) outdistanced Russell Van Buskirk, Jr. (Rep.) by a 46-vote margin. The count was Kreiger 191, VanBuskirk, 145.

Greene Township (Pike County) voters also voted to continue a one-and-one-half mill levy for two years for the purpose of making an appropriation to the Greene-Decher Volunteer Fire Co. for the purchase and maintenance of fire equipment. This issue appeared on the primary ballot and a tie vote resulted.

A difference of opinion across county lines existed on the referendum with respect to a constitutional convention when Decher (Wayne County) voters defeated the issue 76-64 and Greene voted "yes" 90-68.

Results of local contests were: Decher supervisor: James R. Gilpin (Rep.) 172; Charles Bartison (Dem.) 94; school director: William Evans (Rep.) 195; Jacob Ro-backer (Dem.) 64; justice of the peace: Elmore Haag (Rep.-Dem.) 260; auditor: Bennett Gilpin (Rep.) 218; Charles Frey (Dem.) 44; tax collector: Will Ro-backer (Rep.-Dem.) 262; judge of elections: Melvin Manhart (Rep.-Dem.) 285; inspector of elections: Frederick G. Fulmer (Rep.) 218; Laverne Manhart (Dem.) 44.

Greene Township: Judge of elections: Emil Schoenagel (Rep.) 242; George Ehrhardt (Dem.) 95; inspector of elections: Dorothy Haser (Rep.) 210; Frances Haser (Dem.) 122; assessor: Moss Shiffer (Rep.) 273; school director: Edward Parsons (Rep.-Dem.) 320; tax collector: Leon Heberling (Rep.) 284; auditor: Henry Botler (Rep.-Dem.) 288; Gerald Ehrhardt (Dem.) 30.

Stroud Township Voters Fail To Cast Ballot For Auditor In Two Elections

Among the oddities which cropped up in township election results Tuesday were an unfilled post and a school director who won with a total of three write-in votes. The unfilled post was the position of auditor for Stroud Township, a township divided into three voting districts with total registration of 1,861.

Neither party put up a candidate at the primary elections. There was not even a write-in for auditor during primaries.

As a result the voting machine label showed no candidate on either party row. Of the voters in the three districts who went to the polls, not one raised the metal slot to cast a write-in vote for auditor. If unofficial returns are correct.

As a result the auditor's post remains open. A single write-in vote by any voters in any one of the three districts would have elected an auditor. As it is, the commissioners' office said, township supervisors have a limited time in which to appoint an auditor. If they do not act within the time limit, a group of taxpayers may petition to have an auditor appointed.

The school director who won with three write-in votes was Archie Craig, who captured the important six-year term in Eldred Township.

Despite the fact that Eldred had just completed a consolidated elementary school during the year, and was also attempting to weld a joint high school in cooperation with four other townships, neither party bothered to put up a candidate for the director's post during primaries.

Eastern Coolbaugh had its share of ties on the ticket. There were 22 votes each for opponents in the following offices: Associate judge, coroner, surveyor, assessor and auditor.

Seven Price Township residents elected the new township supervisor, Walter Lewis. No candidate had been put up by either party and Lewis won on write-ins.

Official election returns will be counted in the commissioners' office Friday. At that time, on close races or where there were only one or two write-in votes, an accurate count may bring some change.

No upsets are expected, however.

The complete unofficial returns by township follow. In cases where only one party's candidate is listed, it means there was no opponent on the ticket and no write-in opposition.

To determine winners of township-wide offices in those townships with one or more voting districts it is necessary to add the vote from each district.

No. 2 in a series of RARE CREATURES:

THE FLAT-FOOTED FUDDY

dreams of cracker-barrel days and can't stand products that sell too fast

A FLAT-FOOTED FUDDY is a storekeeper who refuses to stock what the customer wants.

Keeps the sales down that way — so that he doesn't have to refill shelves or bother with streams of busy customers.

Naturally the FUDDY is a rare creature, almost extinct.

The modern retailer, fortunately, carries the products that move the fastest — the brands that customers want.

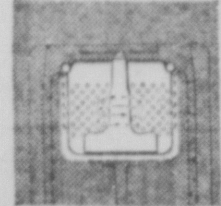

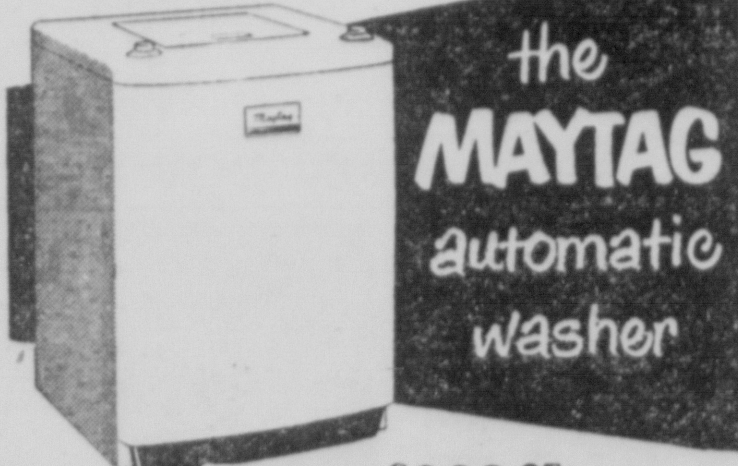

He is sure, of course, that the brand preferences come from the influence of newspaper ads. Naturally. When he advertises he automatically uses the newspaper because he knows that just about all his customers read it.

In fact most retailers use it. Last year while national advertisers were spending $526 million in local newspapers, retailers were spending 85% of their money telling their customers where to buy those national brands.

All business is local... and so are all newspapers!

Mersey League To Be Formed By 11 Women

Eleven women will form the nucleus of a Salvation Army group whose goal is to cheer shut-ins, bed-ridden people and those in hospitals.

The group has never before been established in Monroe County although it is widely sponsored by Salvation Army corps in other areas.

The unit is known as a "League of Mercy," and functions under the Women's Home League of the Army. The Home League consists of women organized to carry on community service projects.

The organization meeting will be at 5:30 p. m. today at 303 S. Courtland St., at the Army's quarters.

Bucks Voters Okay County Health Unit

Harrisburg, (AP)—The state's first county health department will be set up under a proposal overwhelmingly approved by Bucks County voters.

With all but 10 of 119 precincts in the unofficial vote on the referendum question was 8,677 for and 4,839 against the project.

At the same time the question met defeat in Northampton County, which borders Bucks, by a 12,284 to 8,021 margin. The question appeared only on the ballots of those two counties.

Supporters of the plan in Bucks County said it would cost taxpayers about a one mill increase in their tax rate—about $1.50 per person.

The 1951 Legislature authorized decentralization of public health services on a county-state basis through creation of county health units. No county took advantage of the measure, though Butler County's commissioners had organized plans but failed to appropriate money.

Movie Explains Court System

East Stroudsburg Junior High students had their "day in court" yesterday—but it was purely educational.

A film outlining the functions of the court system and the operation of the legal system was shown to seventh, eighth and ninth graders. Title of the film was "A Day In Court."

Increase In Ad Volume Reported

New York (AP)—National advertising, after a slight dip in August, moved upward in September for a 15 per cent gain over the corresponding month in 1952, Printer's Ink said yesterday.

Newspapers showed a seven per cent gain over August and 18 per cent over September, 1952. Network television was unchanged from August and 26 per cent ahead of September, 1952.

Second Justice Of Peace Elected In Stroudsburg

For the first time in years Stroudsburg will have two justices of the peace.

That was the result when Democrat Samuel A. Lee defeated Republican William N. Walton, incumbent, for the post.

Lee polled 987 to Walton's 913, according to a round-up of unofficial election returns not already reported by The Daily Record.

Walton customarily ran for the justice post every two years. Each time he was elected his six-year franchise as a justice of the peace was renewed.

So despite Walton's defeat Tuesday, he still has four years of his original six-year term to serve. For the next four years, at least, Stroudsburg will have two justices.

Breakdown by ward indicated the following vote: First Ward, Walton 89, Lee 127; Second Ward, Walton 237, Lee 234; Third Ward, Walton 163, Lee 245; Fourth Ward, Walton 150, Lee 185; Fifth Ward, Walton 274, Lee 196.

Tax collector John A. Kitchen was named on both tickets for that office. He polled a total of 1,554, of which an even 1,000 were Republican. Ward tallies for Kitchen were: First Ward, R—97, D—122; Second Ward, R—264, D—212; Third Ward, R—172, D—281; Fourth Ward, R—165, D—175; Fifth Ward, R—302, D—164.

In the race for auditor Republican Robert B. Altomose received 994 votes, topping Democrat W. F. Altomose by 140. Ward returns were: First Ward, R. B. Altomose 93, W. F. Altomose 159; Second Ward, R. B. Altomose 259, W. F. Altomose 201; Third Ward, R. B. Altomose 177, W. F. Altomose 206; Fourth Ward, R. B. Altomose 159, W. F. Altomose 170; Fifth Ward, R. B. Altomose 306, W. F. Altomose 158.

Results of the contest for assessor: First Ward, Stephen Sackley—D defeated K. Adams—R 113 to 104; Second Ward, Mary Teeter Garcia—R was unopposed, polled 255 Republican and 203 Democratic votes; Third Ward, Bessie Lee Clark on both tickets, with R—169 and D—217; Fourth Ward, Floyd E. Fetherman on both tickets with R—161 and D—167; Fifth Ward, Robert Brown won with 280 R votes to Forrest H. Haney's 186—D.

Other returns were: First Ward, election judge, Kenneth Adams—R 112, Earl G. Neal—D 110; inspector, John Adams Jr.—R 101, B. Seip—D 121.

Second Ward: judge, Ella E. Powell—R 258, Ruth E. Nipert—D 209; inspector, Mrs. Anna VanOver—R 227, Elizabeth H. Lee—D 241.

Third Ward: no candidate on ticket for judge; inspector, Kathryn Cincotta—R 165, D 217.

Fourth Ward: judge, Mary E.

Sox—R 176; inspector, Marian Foster—R 146; Mary Melchner—D 186.

Fifth Ward: judge, Maude L. Walton—R 298, D 170; inspector, Mildred Allen—R 325, Hazel B. Lauffer—D 140.

East Stroudsburg Incumbent tax collector Paul W. Lloyd defeated his Democratic opponent A. Dewey Jacoby 1,161 to 810, a margin of 351 votes.

Gladys Arnold, unopposed for auditor, polled 1,070 votes on the Democratic half of the label.

Break-down by wards:

First Ward: Tax collector, Lloyd 260, Jacoby 143; assessor, Schuman Smith—R 182, Paul Shaffer—D 200; auditor, Arnold 191; judge, Walter F. Brown—R 243; inspector, Maude E. Bowman—R 212, Jean T. Hastie—D 171.

Second Ward: Tax collector, Lloyd 180, Jacoby 145; assessor, Jeanne W. Cummins—D 167; auditor, Arnold 160; judge, Joseph Hinebine—D 171; inspector, Elsie Bush—R 150, Mrs. Elva M. Peters—D 164.

Third Ward: Tax collector, Lloyd 163, Jacoby 129; assessor, Raymond Mansfield—R 115, D 157; auditor, Arnold 176; judge, Margaret Fatzinger—R 115, D 163; inspector, Marion Kintner—R 116, Gertrude G. Blitt—D 138.

Fourth Ward: Tax collector, Lloyd 201, Jacoby 112; assessor, Theodore R. Henning—D 185; auditor, Arnold 175; judge, Catherine Abel—D 182; inspector, Emily C. Bush—R 137, Mary C. Brown—D 157.

Delaware Water Gap

Discussion in this borough yesterday revolved around the council seat sought by John R. Staples. Opinion was split on whether Staples won or lost.

His name appeared on the Republican ticket as "J. R. Staples" and won 96 votes; it appeared on the Democratic ticket as "John R. Staples" and picked up 70 more votes. The total—166—would make Staples high man of the four councilmen elected. But some party officials had the opinion yesterday that Staples was defeated because he failed to identify "J. R. Staples" and "John R. Staples" legally after the primaries as being the same man. As a result, he would be unable to add his votes together, and must take the higher of the two counts and let the other go, one group holds.

The result is that his high of 96 is topped by Russell Shellenberger with 119, Francis R. Drake with 115, Willard D. Kitchen with 100 and John Flynn with 98.

J. T. Hauser was unopposed for justice of the peace, garnering 103 Republican votes and 87 Democratic votes.

Also unopposed were Clarence E. Newhart for tax collector, R—104 and D—87; and John R. Staples for assessor, —94 and D—88. Other tallies: Auditor, Lillienne Jones—D 92; judge, E. Layton-Hauser—R 94, Benton Keller—D 92; inspector, Marian E. Drake—R 96, D 91.

Mount Pocono

Emma R. Merwin was unopposed for justice of the peace here, winning R—179 and D—133.

Kenneth S. Miller received R—182 and D—131 as constable. Bessie C. Ingersoll, Republican candidate, defeated Martin J. Brennan, Democrat, by 175 to 133. Other tallies: Auditor, Glenice M. Dutier—R 178, Anna L. Vlossak—D 134; judge, Cassie Gilpin—R 154, Dorothea D. Serfass—D 161; inspector, Theresa F. Cruise—R 180, Anna L. Vlossak—D 138.

Chief Justice Warren's Lack Of Judicial Experience May Prove His Greatest Asset

By Raymond Wilcoxe
Central Press Correspondent
Washington—Chief Justice Earl Warren's major handicap, his lack of judicial experience, may yet turn out to be his greatest asset.

There is notable precedent for this prediction. For John Marshall, probably the greatest of our 14 Chief Justices, never sat on the bench until he was named to head the United States Supreme Court.

Despite his lack of court experience, Marshall served with distinction for 34 years, from 1801 to 1835, handing down more than 500 opinions.

His previous failure to serve as a judge did not prevent Marshall from building up the Supreme Court to a position equal in the government to the legislative and executive branches. Thus, like Marshall, Warren comes to the high court unfettered for the important task which confront him.

Warren is the first man without judicial experience named to the high post this century. Of the five Chief Justices who served since 1900, three had been associate justices of the Supreme Court and the remaining two had other court background.

President Eisenhower has the distinction of being one of only 12 presidents able to name a Chief Justice.

He is also the first President since George Washington to make a recess appointment. When John Jay, the first to head the court, retired, Washington named John Rutledge, of South Carolina, Chief Justice on July 1, 1795.

When the Senate met, however, the following December, it refused to confirm Rutledge and Washington appointed Oliver Ellsworth. Washington thus had the distinction of naming three Chief Justices.

Warren is the first man without judicial experience named to the high post this century. Of the five Chief Justices who served since 1900, three had been associate justices of the Supreme Court and the remaining two had other court background.

Saylorsburg

A turkey dinner was enjoyed Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Blake honoring the birthday of Mr. Blake's father, Leon Blake. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kutz, of Allentown; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shinton, of Lansford; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brong, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Blake, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Blake and daughter Robin.

Guests of Mrs. J. E. Serfass during the past week were Mrs. Willard Platt and son Burth, of Asbury, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Green, of Emmaus; Mrs. J. H. Newhart, of Stockertown; Col. and Mrs. Harry Serfass, of Stroudsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Altemose, Mrs. Emma Altemose, and Mrs. Sarah Jane Schoch.

Callers of Mr. and Mrs. Walter May Friday were: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morgan, of Pen Argyl; Mrs. Marvin Honey, of Bangor; Mrs. A. A. Holbrook and Mrs. Russell Hughes, of Stroudsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sotak and daughters, of Coaldale, were Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Post.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kreidler of Bethlehem, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kreidler and son Glenn, of Allentown and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Greenmoyer, of Bangor, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Greenmoyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wear, of Allentown, were Sunday guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Knowles and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Meixsell of Bethlehem, and Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Meixsell, of Saylorsburg, were Sunday afternoon callers of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Berger and Mr. and Mrs. George Buck, of Trachsville. The Eugene Meixsells were supper guests of the P. W. Meixsells.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Beers, of Bangor, and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Possinger and daughter Julia Ann, of East Stroudsburg, were Sunday callers of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bond.

Rev. and Mrs. Harold Ulmer attended the Evangelical United Brethren ministerial meeting at the Paradise Valley Chapel. A banquet was served at the Crescent Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Neal, East Stroudsburg, were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Williams and family. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Blair and the Williams home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brands and daughters Mary and Barbara called Sunday on the former's mother, Mrs. Bertha Brands, Hainesburg, N. J.

Chief Justice Earl Warren at his desk.

There is little danger, however, that Warren's nomination will be rejected by the Senate when it reconvenes Jan. 6. Both Republicans and Democrats hold the former three-time California governor in great esteem.

Although Warren's five predecessors all had some previous judicial experience, a majority of the Chief Justices before that was selected from positions in the government or directly from the ranks of attorneys.

Warren is the first Republican since Harlan F. Stone to head the court. Stone was named to the court as an associate justice by President Calvin Coolidge and promoted to the top post by President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Upon Stone's death in 1946, former President Harry Truman named Fred M. Vinson to succeed him. Vinson, who died Sept. 8, had a distinguished government career which included service on the circuit court.

William Howard Taft was the only President also to head the court. He served from 1921 to 1930. His successor, Charles Evans Hughes, resigned from the court in 1912 as associate justice to run for President and was named Chief Justice by President Herbert Hoover in 1930. He served until 1941.

Marshall with his 34 years holds the record for tenure. Second man in length of service was Roger B. Taney of Maryland, who succeeded Marshall and served 28 years. The third was Melville W. Fuller, with 21 years.

Salmon P. Chase, an appointee of Abraham Lincoln, is the only Chief Justice whose face appears on United States currency. However, few see it because it adorns the $10,000 bill.

Stone was the oldest Chief Justice named. The youngest was Jay.

Helen Keller Lauds President

Washington, (AP)—Blind Helen Keller put her hands on President Eisenhower's face Tuesday and told him: "You have a wonderful smile."

Miss Keller, 73, has been blind and deaf since an illness when she was 19 months old. For years she was unable to speak, but later learned to talk to some extent.

She was accompanied to the White House from New York by her companion of 39 years, Miss Polly Thompson, who communicates with Miss Keller through a "touch" alphabet.

Describing her visit with Eisenhower, Miss Keller told newsmen: "It was a very interesting moment. He (the president) is one of the great forces that have made the world safer for freedom."

It is estimated that the Dead Sea contains two million tons of potash.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Gehm and their daughter-in-law Mrs. Frederick Gehm motored to Virginia Friday night where Frederick Gehm is stationed at Camp Eustis. Gehm is in the transportation, research and development division of the Army where his special studies in psychiatry prepared him for personnel work. He has rented an apartment overlooking the James River and had bought furniture so that his wife could remain and set up housekeeping. He received his bachelor of science degree from Long Island University last week and will continue studies for a master's degree. His wife also will take up some college courses. His parents returned Sunday night having made a 900 mile round trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carlton spent the past week at Atlantic City, N. J. When they returned Sunday night they brought with them Mrs. Carlton's aunt, Mrs. Albert Dunham, of Mt. Holly, N. J., who will remain for a week.

Mrs. H. W. Brodhead entertained her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Noble, of Sterling, and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bryden Taylor at dinner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hill, their daughters, Mrs. Ray Hess and Teresa Huff, all of Belvidere, N. J., and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bush, of Wolf Hollow were Friday night visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Storm.

Sunday night Mrs. Herbert Buzard's brother-in-law and sister, and their children, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mills, Eugene and Marilyn Mills, of Farmingdale, N. J., visited the Buzard home.

Mrs. Edythe Glebe, who is spending some months in Stroudsburg and Mrs. Rena Mann, of East Stroudsburg, were here Sunday for the morning service at the Presbyterian Church.

Thursday, Nov. 5, is the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Layton Osborne, who formerly ran one of the gas stations and cabin colonies on Foxtown Hill. They now have a cabin colony near their home at the foot of Bloom's Hill.

Adding special days in succession, Mrs. Osborne has a birthday the next day, Nov. 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Davis had as dinner guests Sunday Mr. Davis' parents and brother, Mr. and Mrs.

D. J. Davis of Wilkes-Barre and Robert Davis of Philadelphia. This was in honor of Delbert Davis' birthday Sunday.

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

I guess the winter armistice is over — anyway everybody went around yesterday with their shoulders hunched, their coats pulled tight and their noses and fingers looking sort of frost-bitten. Of course I know it was too good to last all the time, but just the same it might have waited until the day after the day after election when our resistance was a little higher.

There were an awful lot of people making like political analysts yesterday but there were so many conflicting trends that nobody could maintain a consistent attitude all the way.

Well, I'll be glad to forget politics and concentrate on getting the Halloween parties safely out of the way before Thanksgiving. Had a new prize this morning — a prize for the scariest costume.

The mothers of hand students in both Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg are putting in a busy week, by the way, and a lot of people who enjoy the hands in their parades might turn up with a little practical support at this juncture.

However, at this point the combination of a late election night and a warm interior after the brisk breezes outside is an irresistible soporific. It always looks queer urging someone "onward and upward" while you're trying to stifle a yawn.

Listen To Bobby Westbrook daily, Monday through Friday, on "The Party Line" WVPO, 10:15 a.m.

Elected To Honor Fraternity At Penn State

Jack Bernbaum, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Bernbaum, of Ransberry Ave., East Stroudsburg, has been elected to the national honorary business fraternity, Delta Sigma Pi, at Pennsylvania State College.

A graduate of East Stroudsburg High School, Bernbaum is now in his senior year at the college.

Sunday School Staff Studies Teaching Methods

Bartonsville — Officers and teachers of St. John's Lutheran Church met on Monday night at the church with the pastor, Rev. John E. Bergstresser, to discuss and study methods of teaching in the Sunday School and to see if improvements might be made.

Those attending were Mr. Bergstresser, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cyphers, Mr. and Mrs. Haviland Heller, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cyphers, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Starnes, Mrs. Beatrice Swink, Mrs. Joseph Dunbar, Mrs. Robert Field and Kathryn Metzgar.

Fellowships Entertain At Two Parties

Delaware Water Gap — At the Sunday night supper for junior and senior Youth Fellowships, 32 of the 35 members were present. Mrs. H. J. LaBar and Mrs. John Wilson Jr. prepared the supper.

The Senior Fellowship had 30 at their Halloween party Thursday night at the Hotel Delaware Water Gap. The officers: Larry Funk, Gloria Flynn, Evelyn Widows and Joyce Holland had arranged the program which was dancing, games and refreshments.

The Junior Fellowship held their party Friday night in the Sunday School room. Sandra Carlton, Mary Etta Gray and John Gray planned the program. Camille Buzzard, Susan Heitler and Eleanor Kulp captained the teams for the scavenger hunt which was won by Camille Buzzard with her team; Billy and Sandra Carlton, Carol Snyder and Ingrid Weekwert.

Prizes were won for the funniest costume by Marianne Drake as a hobbit; the cleverest, Carol Snyder and Barbara Anuskevitz as a black-face team; "scariest," by Sandra Carlton as a witch.

Refreshments were served by Marianne Drake and Elizabeth Redzig. The cleanup committee was Mary Etta Gray, Elizabeth Redzig and Marianne Drake.

At their Sunday night meeting the juniors began the study of the Ten Commandments.

VCC Card Club At Bartron's

Portland — Mrs. Arthur Bartron entertained the VCC Card Club at her home at the Point of the Mountain on Saturday afternoon. Decorations and refreshments were in keeping with Halloween. Bridge was played and prizes awarded to Mrs. Bert Transue and Miss Ruth Jones.

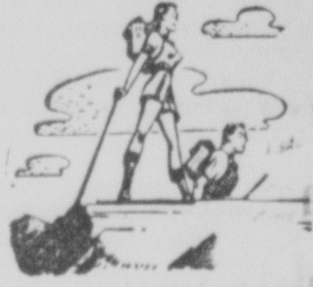

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Bert Transue, of Mt. Bethel, Mrs. Lela Williams of Slateford, Miss Ruth Jones of Bethlehem, Mrs. Raymond Transue, Mrs. Harry Morgan, Mrs. Ernest Courtney, Mrs. Frank Gardner and the hostess, Mrs. Bartron.

Here's a dessert the teen-age crowd thinks is great: Brownies topped with peppermint ice cream and thick, gooey chocolate sauce.

Republican Women To Meet At Harrisburg

Harrisburg (AP) — The 31st annual two-day convention of the Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women opens here Nov. 16 with some 1,500 delegates from all over the commonwealth to attend.

Representing some 63,000 council members, the delegates will participate in a question and answer program with state GOP leaders, including Pennsylvania's U. S. Sen. Edward Martin and James H. Duff, U. S. Reps. Richard M. Simpson and Samuel K. McConnell Jr.

The convention will also hear addresses by Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell Jr., former U. S. Sen. Harry P. Cain, of Washington, and Gov. John S. Fine.

There is no excuse for narrowness of vision as this, and I admit it. I'll even go so far as to say that if all of us were brought face to face with the ingenuity, skills and crafts of our international neighbors more frequently, we'd probably be far too intrigued and impressed to ever underestimate them again.

Report Card Revision To Be Discussed

A long-range program to study revisions of report cards will be launched at 3:30 p. m. today at East Stroudsburg High School.

Designed primarily as a faculty-student-parent joint study project the program will include meetings between representatives of all three groups.

Discussion of the grading system today will be introduced by Mrs. Kathleen Butz and Gilbert Dunning, members of the school faculty. The two teachers will outline the "basic philosophy and objectives of our school" and attempt to establish a point of departure from which the survey may be carried out.

In a preliminary brochure issued this week, the revision committee has set forth a series of principles which, it feels, should guide the survey.

"The committee feels that a report card revision for our particular school should be worked out on the basis of our philosophy, our objectives and our staff," the summary begins.

Primary concern of the committee will be to "establish . . . what we are trying to rate" before attempting to devise a marking system different from the one now used.

Today's discussion will be drawn largely from an evaluation group survey made in 1950 by Mrs. Butz, Walter Stem and Harold K. Lee.

The results of a "faculty opinion" study will be released this afternoon by Mrs. Martha Martin.

The current survey represents an increasing trend in local schools toward a re-examination of established policies.

Last year, a parent-teacher group conducted a similar survey for East Stroudsburg Junior High School. Findings of that study resulted in several changes in the marking system used by the junior high administration.

To set up a study-system of maximum representation, the high school committee has set forth an idea for the appointment (or election) of a "student group" composed of one member each from the senior, junior and sophomore classes in each curricula division.

Faculty members would then be appointed to sit in discussion with the student group.

A similar practice would be used in selecting (or asking an interested group to select) a representative group of parents.

Heading the report card revision overall committee will be Ruth Black, Gilbert Dunning, Charles Schaller, Mrs. Martin, and Michael Jacobella.

Dunning and Schaller will meet with the student group; Jacobella, Mrs. Harriet Hantjies, Lewis Hastie and Mrs. Martin with the parental group.

Members of a "committee on achievement" will be Ruth Black, Ruth Harvey, Claire Hughes, Valeska Heller, Kathleen Butz, Delbert Davis, Gilbert Dunning, Jack Kist, Clement Wiedmeyer, and Robert Burrows.

Appointed to study the method for "marking attitudes" of the students are Jacobella, Delores Lemoine, Ralph Bender, John Eckert and Harold Kramer, Schaller and Walter Stem will prepare a "sample report card" during the final stages of the survey.

Tri-Hi-Y Club Dines Tonight

East Stroudsburg High School Tri-Hi-Y Club, boasting a membership of 60 this year, will celebrate with a potluck supper and talent show tonight at 6 in the high school building.

According to Mrs. Harriet Hantjies, adviser to the group, the supper will be served in the high school library beginning at 6 p. m.

Following the meal, the students and their guests will meet in the school auditorium for a variety program featuring organization talent.

Included on the program will be a series of dance demonstrations, ranging from the "authentic Hawaiian hula" complete with grass skirt to a modern jitterbug routine.

Other dances featured will be the Charleston and the tango. A pantomime skit satirizing operations, patients and doctors; a hill-billy act and a piano duet will round out the program.

Guests will include Ralph O. Burrows, high school principal; Miss Claire Hughes, new vocal music instructor, and John Wilson, executive secretary of the YMCA.

Retail Sales Outlook Good, Says Executive

Detroit (AP)—J. Gordon Dakins, executive vice president of the National Retail Dry Goods Assn., expressed optimism yesterday regarding the outlook for retail sales during the first half of next year. Dakins said high employment, stable wages, the scheduled reduction in income taxes and continued high spending for defense were major factors in the bright prospects for the first six months of 1954.

Bangor School Board Enlists Help Of Women In Organizing Traffic Patrol At Grade School

Bangor — Local school board members decided last night to enlist the aid of women in setting up an adequate traffic patrol for one of its elementary schools.

In action taken during its monthly meeting, the board instructed its finance committee to "contact McKinley (school) Parent Teachers Association" to "see if such a program could be arranged."

Although no concrete plan was developed during the meeting, board members expressed belief that enlistment of female aid might be the solution to the inadequate traffic patrol reserves for the grade school location.

Three newly-elected board members—Quintus LaBar, Merle Mabus and Dr. Nicholas Casario—were present at the meeting and were introduced from the floor.

David Stoddard, now serving as board president, was also re-elected.

Further actions taken by the board included:

Approval of use of the high school auditorium by the Bangor Kiwanis Club for a dance recital Nov. 28 and the use of the auditorium by the Veterans of Foreign Wars for a home talent show from Dec. 9 through Dec. 12, both programs benefiting the school janitorial fund.

Ordered finance committee to study diagrams submitted by insurance broker Ernest Turizo on coverage of school buildings and report its recommendations at the next monthly meeting.

Named Marvin DePamphile athletic committee chairman, filling a vacancy left by the departure of Dr. Charles Strout. Term expires on Dec. 1.

Approved early dismissal of school on Monday, Nov. 16 so that students may attend the Bangor-Pen Argyl junior varsity football game.

Announced formation of a new school department made up of the physical education, home economics teachers and the school nurse.

Discussed possibility of beginning football in junior high school; asked Superintendent Donald E. Keat and athletic commission to study the problem.

Announced installation of new gas stoves in the home economics department.

Voted to advertise for bids for supply of a "kiln" for use in the high school art department in the making of ceramics.

Refused request of a resident (Mrs. DeFranco) to hold tap dancing classes in the high school after school hours.

Gave permission to Keat to attend the national convention of the Literary Magazine Published

Under direction of faculty member John E. Eckert, East Stroudsburg High School English students have begun publication of a mimeo magazine devoted to their own literary output.

Included in the first issue of the magazine, which has not yet been distributed in the school pending completion of a cover by the commercial department, are poems, short stories and character sketches done both as part of classroom assignments and outside activity.

Student teachers Nancy Haines and Joan Petchel serve as advisers to the group, assisting Eckert in sponsorship of the magazine. Art work has been done by Shirley Vallerichamp.

Students whose work is included in the publication are Carol Cramer, Paul Schlough, Shirley LaBarre, Beverly Allen, Joan Mutchler, Richard Burch, Beverly Bogert, Harvey Miller, Rose Repsher, Reva Heller, Nancy Pensyl, Gerald Zeman, Carol Lupin, Nick Patella, Barbara Epple, Elizabeth Knerim, Joyce Flyte, Bill Sommers and Patricia Pugh.

American Association of School Administrators at Atlantic City from Feb. 13 to Feb. 18.

Heard a report from the athletic committee that seats for the Thanksgiving Day game between Bangor and Pen Argyl will go on sale Tuesday, Nov. 17 from 7 to 9 p.m. at the high school. Only one ticket per person will be sold, the board announced.

Walter Wyckoff New President Of Art Group

The Pocono Mountains Art Group met at Wyckoff's Recreation Hall on Tuesday night.

A work session took place with Jane Bowman Sebring as model.

During the business session, Walter Wyckoff was elected president; Phoebe Conrad, vice president, and Arthur A. Widmer, secretary and treasurer.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday night, Nov. 17, at the same place.

Joost Named Third Manager Of A's In Surprise Move

By Ralph Bernstein
Philadelphia, (AP)—Shortstop Eddie Joost yesterday was named the third field manager in the history of the Philadelphia Athletics in a move so surprising that he had never been named manager of the club.

Roy Mack, executive vice president of the American League baseball club, announced the signing of the 37-year-old Joost to a one year contract at an undisclosed salary believed to be about $30,000. Joost, a veteran of 16 years in the major leagues, will be playing manager, Mack said.

Mack, asked if Dykes had been fired, said he felt the little round man of Oskmont, Pa., had done a "poor job with the 1953 Athletics, and a change was necessary."

"We have a great deal of respect for Jimmy and hope he will remain with us in an advisory capacity," Mack said.

He announced Dykes will be asked to fill out the remaining year of his two year contract as a member of an advisory group consisting of Joost, Earl Mack, club president, and Dykes. This advisory board would make all decisions on player trades and club policy.

Asked why Dykes wasn't present at the press conference, Roy said Jimmy had been asked to meet with the club owners yesterday but didn't show up. He added that Dykes had a non-speaking engagement and that may have kept him away. He admitted that Dykes knew nothing of the managerial switch.

Reached at Norristown, Pa., where he addressed a Junior Chamber of Commerce luncheon, Dykes expressed complete surprise at the news. "Why didn't they tell me Tuesday, I was in the ball park. Nobody said anything to me. I don't know what I'll do. I'll have to talk to Roy first."

The move was the second major one affecting the Athletics in a week. Arthur Ebers signed as general manager last week to accept a similar post with the new Baltimore Orioles of the American League.

Joost said he was notified of his new job Tuesday after flying here from his home in Burlingame, Calif. "I haven't had time to talk things over with the Macks, but you can be sure there'll be some changes made. We certainly can't go in 1954 with that 1953 team. We need speed, added defense and hustle."

Joost is married and the father of four boys. He first was signed by the San Francisco Mission at the age of 16 and has played with Syracuse, Kansas City, Rochester, Cincinnati, the defunct Boston Braves and the Athletics.

Connie Mack purchased Eddie from Rochester in 1946, for $15,000 and two players. He helped to establish a new American League record for double plays in 1949, when the A's made 217 twin-kills.

Although Joost was emphatic when he announced that some changes had to be made on the club for next year, he in no way indicated exactly what the changes might be. The A's were busy in the trading market under Ebers last winter and if the Philadelphia Club is to get the new material Joost wants, it undoubtedly will have to be busy again this winter.

Joost was hired as a playing manager, but the likeable infielder didn't announce if he intended to attempt to play regularly or operate as a reserve inner-defenseman.

The new manager will probably work himself into playing condition slowly at spring training.

as he will be one of the shortstop candidates go through their paces before he makes a decision as to his own playing status.

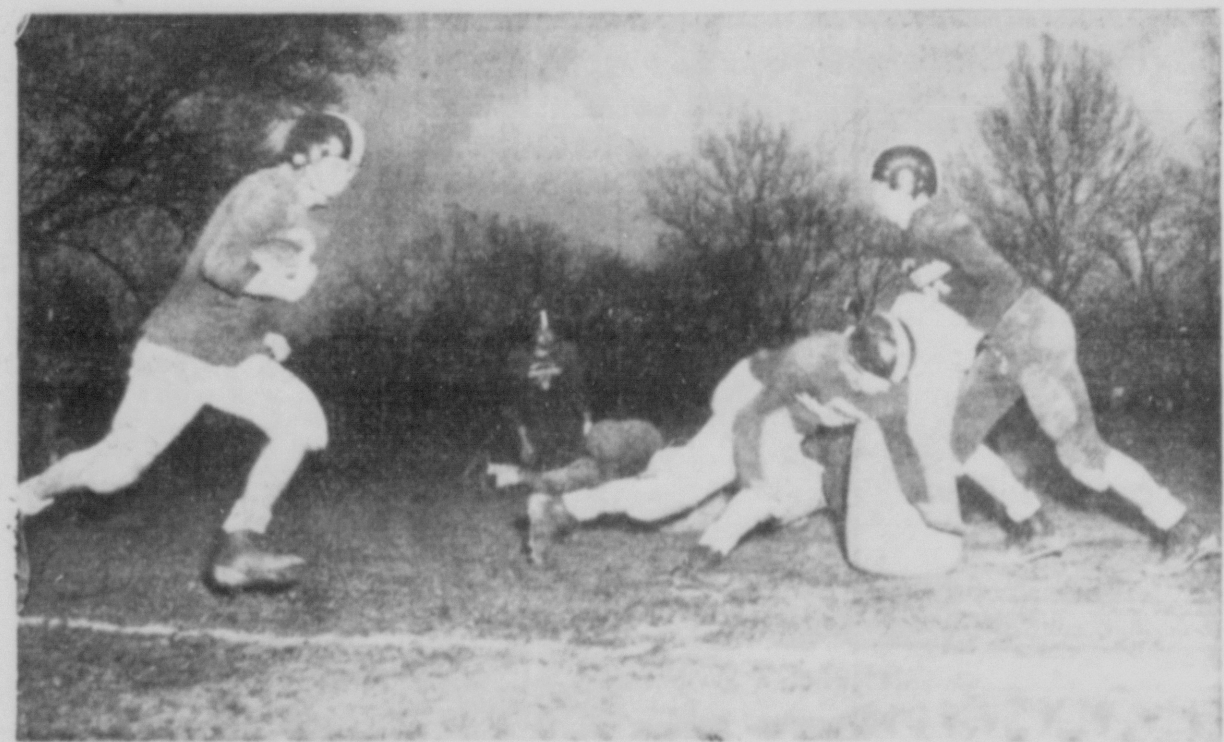

No announcement was made concerning the status of the present coaches on the A's roster. It isn't known whether Joost has given a free hand to name his own aids or whether the current coaching staff will be retained by the club.

Prior to being named manager, Joost, who was on the ailing list for most of last season, was field captain of the club and one of the best lead-off men in the American League.

Education Council Official Believes Giant Stride Made Toward Solving Football Problem

By Herb Altschull

Washington (AP)—An official of the American Council on Education said yesterday he regards the NCAA president's blast at "skulduggery" in football as a major stride toward "sweeping the rascals out of college football."

The council, which represents all the major colleges in the country, adopted a code last year calling for a general de-emphasis of football. It asked the NCAA to help police a de-emphasis program.

Raymond A. Howes, secretary of a special committee of 11 college presidents which made the recommendations, said he was heartened by the speech this week of Dr. A. B. Moore, NCAA president, calling on college football to rid itself of "hypocrisy, skulduggery and cheating."

"It is a very hopeful thing to have the head of the NCAA taking that attitude," Howes said. "If it indicates they're going into this thing more energetically, that's all to the good."

In his speech at Talladega, Ala., Moore said the NCAA has "only scratched the surface" in digging up the practices which are "causing the public to lose faith" in college football.

Although the southwest is this column's sore spot this far this season, the local area could provide plenty of pitfalls this week. Stroudsburg High, fighting desperately for its first Lehigh Valley League football championship (the Mountaineers shared the title with Northampton many years ago) plays host to a Slatington club that could very easily knock the bottom out of the entire Stroudsburg setup. Tomorrow night's invader is big, rugged and for many weeks was right in the thick of the title picture. Slatington is the type of team that could very easily spring an upset at this point of the season.

But, we've watched the Mountaineers play too often this season to sell them short. It looks like a championship season at the W. Main St. school, but Stroudsburg must be very careful tomorrow, as Slatington would like nothing better than to upset the apple cart. If the Mountaineers are "up," they may bring home the bacon by a margin of two touchdowns. East Stroudsburg State Teachers College tangles with Cortland Teachers on Saturday, on the Normal Hill field. Cortland is bringing a truly strong team to town, but an ESSTC club such as the one that played against West Chester could win the game. Hoping the Warriors can attain something like that peak once again, we'll string along with Coach Gene Martin and company.

A Bangor team without Jack Finelli is like an automobile without one cylinder and Northampton looks like the winner in a Saturday grid tussle between these two schools, as Slatington, East Stroudsburg High's football team will be taking in all festivities in the role of a spectator, as the Cavaliers own an open date on the schedule. On the national scene Army appears to be a certain winner over North Carolina, while an injury riddled Wake Forest club finds enough strength to nip Eastern College and Holy Cross tops Boston University. Brown will top Connecticut, Colgate appears just a little too strong for Bucknell and Dartmouth, as of last week, seemed to find itself and will down Columbia.

Syracuse will edge Cornell, Penn State should dump Fordham, Princeton will just nip Harvard, while Lafayette spans Rutgers and Navy flattens Duke. Notre Dame will bury Penn under a field of shambles, Pitt will defeat Virginia, Yale will clip Temple and Cincinnati will murder Louisville. Marquette is a toss-up choice over Detroit, Drake will down Wayne and Illinois will decision Michigan in a good game. Minnesota is too strong for Indiana, Purdue will shade Iowa, Nebraska should down Iowa State and Kansas State will defeat Kansas. Michigan State will edge Ohio State in a very good contest, Oklahoma will roll over Missouri and Wisconsin is a very timid choice over Northwestern.

Oklahoma A. and M. is another very uncertain choice over Wyoming, while Houston downs Tulsa and Wichita trips Denver. Alabama will roll over Chattanooga, Auburn will trip Miami, Fla. Georgia Tech will easily defeat Clemson, Washington and Lee will edge Richmond, Georgia should top Florida. Furman is the choice over Presbyterian, Maryland will blast George Washington, Kentucky rates the nod over Vanderbilt and Tennessee will decision Louisiana State. Mississippi will down North Texas State, Mississippi State will shade Tulane in another very good ball game and North Carolina will roll over South Carolina, while Richmond downs Hampden-Sydney.

William and Mary rates the edge over VMI and West Virginia is a sure thing over VPI. Rice will bounce back with a win over Arkansas, Baylor will nip Texas, Southern Methodist will down Texas A. and M., Texas Christian rates a slight edge over Washington State and Texas Tech looks like a winner over Arizona. Colorado A. and M. will tame Brigham Young, while Colorado tops Utah, New Mexico blasts New Mexico A. and M. and Utah State tops Fresno State. On the Pacific Coast it looks like California over Washington, Oregon over Idaho, Montana over Montana State, College of the Pacific over San Jose State and Stanford over Southern California in a good contest, California will dump Washington in another encounter. That's it for today and it looks like a tough weekend ahead.

Bangor Seeks Replacement For Finelli

Bangor—Bangor High school has been going through its football workouts with only one thought in mind—replacing Jack Finelli.

Finelli, ace runner and chief ground gainer for the Slaters this season, suffered a broken left ankle in last Friday night's tussle with Nazareth and is still a patient at Eastern Hospital.

Although Coach Granville Evans hasn't announced an official replacement for his ace back, the choice undoubtedly lies between Duane Miller and Jack Stenlake. Miller is a Junior and Stenlake is a member of the Sophomore class at Bangor High.

If Miller opens at the left half post, his former offensive end position will undoubtedly go to Art "Bucky" Parsons, who has played a lot of football on the wing this season, both offensively and defensively.

Should Stenlake be named the starting left halfback, the Slaters will undoubtedly answer the opening kickoff with Miller at his usual offensive end position. Miller plays defensive halfback regardless of his offensive status.

Working Hard
Bangor has been working hard this week in preparation for Saturday's clash with undefeated Northampton, on the latter's home ground—Wolfe Field.

The Slaters have worked against Northampton plays and have also brushed up on their own offense. Bangor gridlers have also watched films of past Northampton games, so as to become familiar with the style of play used by the Konkrete Kids.

Northampton's record at the present time is four wins, one tie and a single loss. The defeat was at the hands of Phillipsburg and the "deadback" was a 13-13 affair with Whitehall High, in a Lehigh Valley League game.

The Konkrete Kids have defeated Emmaus, Slatington, Palmerton and Lehigh.

Bangor's current record is four victories and three setbacks. The victories are over Palmerton, Catonsville, East Stroudsburg and Coplay. The setbacks were inflicted by Wilson Borough, Stroudsburg and Nazareth.

Coaches Hit In Politics

Syracuse, N. Y., (AP)—Democrats preparing for next year's election meeting with the Republicans should keep a careful eye on a couple of GOP scoundrels.

Reverend Piro, line coach, and Roy Simmons, backfield coach, of the Syracuse University varsity football team scouted Illinois before the Syracuse club held the strong Illini to only a 20-13 win.

Tuesday, Piro was elected a councilman in the nearby town of Geddes on the Republican ticket. Simmons, also a Republican, is a member of the Syracuse common council.

Howes said "it is obvious that our recommendations have not been accepted 100 per cent all over the country."

Dix Returns To Allentown
Omaha, (AP)—Don Dix, general manager of the Omaha Cardinals of the class "A" Western League, announced yesterday he had accepted a similar baseball post with Allentown, Pa., of the class "A" Eastern League.

Veteran
Dix came to Omaha from Allentown where he served as president and general manager in 1951 and 1952 when that city was a member of the Inter-State League.

Passarella Retires As Ump
St. Augustine, Fla., (AP)—Art Passarella, a veteran of 13 years as a major league umpire, said here yesterday that he had resigned from the American League umpire staff.

No Comment
Passarella, who makes his home here, refused to comment on his reasons or on his future plans other than to say that he "hoped to remain in baseball in some capacity."

Change Made In Balk Rule

New York (AP)—The hitters got another break from the ball rule committee yesterday when the balk rule was changed.

Under the new rule, the offensive team will have an option of taking the balk called on the pitcher or the result of the batter's swing—possibly a home run.

Often a pitcher continued his delivery and throws to the plate, even when an umpire has yelled, "Balk."

In the past, it was possible for a batter to hit a home run, under such circumstances, and have the hit nullified by the umpire's "balk" call. It was mandatory that the base runners advance one base and the batter resume his place at the plate.

Now a batter who might hit the "balk" pitch into the leftfield stands, could elect to accept the home run. It compares roughly with the football rule that permits an offensive team to repeat an off-sides penalty against the defense team on a play that led to a touchdown. Naturally, they forget the penalty and take the gain.

In addition, the batter has the option in case the throw becomes a wild pitch or a fourth ball. On a wild pitch, base runners could advance as much as possible. On the fourth ball, the batter could elect to take the walk.

Raseball has two other similar "option" rules, borrowed from football. They permit a batter to decline a penalty for catcher's interference or a "quick pitch" by the pitcher. These two rules have been in the book previously.

West Virginia Tackle Named Top Lineman Of Week By AP

Morgantown, W. Va., (AP)—Bruce Bosley's teammates at West Virginia University believe the sophomore tackle was the logical choice for The Associated Press Lineman of the Week.

Veteran fullback Tommy Allman paid a similar compliment last year after one bruising practice session when he named Bosley to his personal "all-opponent team."

It was largely because of Bosley's crashing charges against Penn State last Saturday that West Virginia retained its rank in the national football picture.

The Mountaineers are rated November 7, with 12 straight victories — the longest winning streak among major colleges.

Bosley scored what proved to be the winning touchdown in West Virginia's 20-19 triumph when he blocked a punt on State's 23, then fell on the ball in the end zone.

He played 60 minutes against State and on that particular play charged so fast that State coach "Rip" Engle hotly contended Bosley was offside, until movies proved otherwise.

Southern Conference To Take Up Post-Season Bowl Question

Washington (AP)—A committee of Southern Conference officials will take up today the question whether West Virginia, the nation's number seven football team, is to be made eligible for bowl bids.

A conference rule prohibits post-season games for its members, but there has been some support within the conference for throwing out the rule.

Committee
The committee, which meets at Roanoke, Va., will turn over its recommendations to the conference president's office in Washington. If it votes to upset the rule, the question will be submitted to all 10 colleges in the conference for decision.

An adverse report by the committee would kill West Virginia's chances for a New Year's Day bowl bid. Officials of the Sugar and Cotton Bowls have shown interest in the unbeaten, untied Mountaineers.

Standouts
"On a winning team, everybody is pretty good and one player doesn't have to do everything," he said yesterday. "On a fair team, you'll find a player or two so much better than the rest that they have to carry the load and so are noticed more."

Church League Lists Program

Switch Made In Grid TV
New York (AP)—The Pittsburgh Steelers-Cleveland Browns pro football game will be telecast coast to coast Sunday afternoon by the Dumont Network instead of the previously scheduled contest between Green Bay and the Chicago Bears.

Reason
The switch was made because of cable difficulties, Tom McMahon, director of sports for Dumont, said yesterday.

A total of 71 stations in 70 cities will carry the Cleveland game. Originally the Packers-Bears game was to be sent over 58 outlets while the Steelers-Browns game was slated for a regional telecast over 13 stations in 12 cities.

IBW Keglers To Bowl
International Boiler Works keggers rolled today on the George N. Kemp American Legion Post Alleys, at 7 p.m. Schedule follows:

Alleys one and two — Batts vs. Kitchen.
Alleys three and four — Lockard vs. Sisco.

Mountaineers Launch Basketball Practice
Slatington High, under its new basketball coach John Kupiec, began drilling for the coming court campaign on Monday of this week and has worked out every day since the opening drill.

Kupiec, a graduate of Stroudsburg, has been working with 10 boys this far and expects at least 10 more to join the club at the end of the present football campaign.

According to plans being formulated by the new coach, the varsity will be made up almost entirely of juniors and seniors, which the junior varsity contingent will consist of freshmen and sophomore performers.

Charley Winters, currently an assistant football mentor, will direct the activities of the junior varsity cage machine, while Joe Kovarik handles the junior high school five once again.

Teamwork
Kupiec stated last night that he hopes to work in a team with the assistant coaches, each doing his job toward development of a strong basketball squad.

Each of the Stroudsburg basketball teams will follow a similar policy designed to further the cause of basketball at the W.

Stroudsburg Faces Stiff Title Test

Slatington High school will present one of the biggest football teams to appear at Gordon Giffels Field this season tomorrow night, when the blue and white clad grid machine stacks up against undefeated Stroudsburg High, in the latter's home ball yard.

Stroudsburg will put a mark of six victories and a single tie on the line against a Slatington team that only last week was eliminated from the Lehigh Valley League title picture.

Three-beaten Slatington will be on the rebound following last week's 34-6 lacing at the hands of Whitehall. Although the Whitehall win was expected, the size of the score proved to be a major surprise, because only two weeks previously Slatington had extended undefeated Northampton to the very limit before the Konkrete Kids were able to escape with a thrilling 20-19 victory.

Slatington will produce a line that averages somewhere in the vicinity of 190 pounds, while the backfield will average at least 160 pounds, providing which Slatington combination is in action at any given time.

Combination
Tomorrow night's visiting eleven is guided by a brother combination. Roy Schleicher is head coach of the Slaters, while brother Maurice is the team's ace back and third leading scorer in the Lehigh Valley with 73 points.

Schleicher, the player, is particularly effective inside the rival team's 20-yard line, but is capable of bulging his 215 pounds through the line at any time in the contest. Schleicher is also a dangerous passer and a strong defensive player.

Although Schleicher is the number one offensive threat for Slatington, there are several other Slaters in the backfield who work well behind the big, rugged forward wall. The Slaters run out of the short punt formation, mixing power plays with a passing game.

Slatington's only other loss of the season was a 19-6 setback at the hands of East Stroudsburg early in the present campaign.

Last year Stroudsburg took the Slaters into camp, 34-7, but in 1951 Slatington scored a 6-0 verdict over the Mountaineers.

Both admission gates at Giffels Field will be open tomorrow night. The kickoff is slated for 8 p.m.

Ladies In Four Matches Today
Four matches are on the agenda of the Stroud Ladies' League at the Pocono Bowling Center, today at 7 p.m. Schedule follows:

Alleys one and two — Stroudsburg Furnace vs. George's Shoes.
Alleys three and four — Bachman Oil vs. Penn Dell Dairy.

Alleys five and six — Bushkill Falls vs. Eleanor's Booterie.
Alleys seven and eight — Thomas Funeral Home vs. Mink's Floor Covering.

Backs Also Shine On Defense
New York (AP)—The country's best offensive backs have had no trouble at all making themselves useful on defense, NCAA Service Bureau statistics indicated yesterday, as they show most of the offense leaders playing a prominent role in punting, intercepting passes and running back kicks.

Names
Georgia's Zeke Bratowski, the country's top major-college passer; Stanford's Bob Garrett, his runner-up; Wyoming's Joe Mastrogiovanni, the running-and-passing leader; Illinois' sophomore J. C. Caroline, the leading ball carrier; Paul Giel, Minnesota's one-man-platoon; and Lamar McHan of Arkansas, who has more yards per game running and passing than anyone else, all show up well in the "defensive" categories.

Three Matches Listed
Three matches are listed for the Monroe County League today at Harmon's Recreation, at 9 p.m. Schedule follows:

Alleys one and two — Mt. Tom Inn vs. Gem Lunch.
Alleys three and four — Becker's Diner vs. CLU.

DEER STALKING...

IF YOU JUMP AN UNSEEN DEER AND THE WIND IS TOWARD YOU, THERE IS A GOOD CHANCE THE DEER WILL CIRCLE TO PICK UP YOUR SCENT BEHIND YOU. A CURIOUS DEER SELDOM LEAVES THE AREA, EVEN IF SEEMINGLY IN GREAT HASTE, BEFORE HE SCENTS THE DISTURBANCE. IF YOU WILL BACKTRACK, DOWNWIND, YOU MAY SEE HIM CIRCLE AND GET A SHOT. IF YOU BACKTRACK TOO FAR, HE IS LIKELY TO KEEP CIRCLING BACK IN YOUR DIRECTION UNTIL SATISFIED THERE IS NO DANGER.

TOO SHORT BACKTRACKING FOOLS YOU WHEN DEER PICKS UP SCENT.

Crowe's Five In First Place Tie

Crowe's Insurance's 2-2 split with Central Bowling Academy of Bethlehem last Saturday, dropped the East Stroudsburg Keplers into a tie for first place with Norton Oil.

The East Stroudsburg contingent had held first place by a full point before battling to a draw with the Central Bowling Academy. At the same time second place Norton Oil won three points from the Fleas Club and moved into the deadlock.

Threat

Phillipsburg's Elks also moved into the title picture by sweeping four points from Riegel Ridge. The Elks are now only one-half point out of first place.

Crowe's Insurance returns to action this Saturday against Caputo's Service at the Fleas Club, in Easton.

DL&W Begins
Charging For Hand Luggage

The Lackawanna Railroad today will start charging 25 cents for each piece of hand luggage checked by passengers to their point of destination.

A charge of 50 cents will be made for the checking of trunks on trains, regardless of the distance any of the baggage is to be carried.

The special fee charge, first to be made by railroads, was approved last week for 58 railroads by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

John H. VanWie, Scranton Division passenger agent, said passengers can escape the charge by taking the luggage with them into the coaches.

Until today the Lackawanna and other railroads had checked luggage free up to 150 pounds. The Lackawanna also provided special attendants to help passengers with luggage on the two streamlined Phoebe Snow trains.

Adventist
Young People
To Convene

Seventh-day Adventist youth of Stroudsburg and vicinity will travel Saturday to Johnson City, N. Y., where they will attend the annual Tri-state Adventist Youth Congress to be held in the city's large Endicott-Johnson Athletic Association Auditorium.

Local delegates, headed by the leader of the Missionary Volunteer Youth Society, are expected to join more than 1,000 Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey youth in the all-day affair scheduled to begin at 9:45 a. m. and end at 9:30 p. m.

Dr. L. M. Stump, Massachusetts, president of the Atlantic Union College, will be the main speaker at the morning session. Other speakers and special features will include Ray Hausted, Ohio, a leading lay evangelist; the "Coney Island Evangelists," teenage boys who are holding religious meetings in a tavern on Coney Island; Carl Hempe, Washington, D. C., a former "Mr. America," with a demonstration of weight-lifting and physical strength; and a delegation of students from the Philadelphia Academy with a temperance program.

Directing the annual affair is L. R. Callender, youth leader of the East Pennsylvania Conference, assisted by M. T. Hannah, New York youth leader; and Joseph Barnes, New York City Adventist youth leader.

Sabbath school services are scheduled in the morning for the visiting youth delegations when several church officials will participate in the program. The Congress will also feature the premiere showing of a 45-minute motion picture, "Outpost Evangelism."

The Stroudsburg delegation will travel to the New York city early Saturday morning and return the same day. The Congress is being held in Johnson City for the fourth consecutive year.

Turnpike Showed
$7,631,700 Net
Profit In Year

Harrisburg—The Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission announced a record gross revenue of $21,281,459 from 11,304,669 vehicles using the superhighway during the fiscal year ending May 31, 1953.

"This represents a 32.2 per cent increase in gross revenue and a 28.5 per cent increase in vehicular traffic over the previous fiscal year," Chairman Thomas J. Evans said.

The net profit for the past year was $7,631,700.

Total operating expenses, including the maintenance of roadway and structures, maintenance and operation of tunnels, fare collection, Turnpike patrol, public safety and general administrative were $4,363,661. Interest charges on bonds amounted to $5,890,525.

The bumper earnings on this toll road have placed its entire road redemption program approximately seven years ahead of schedule.

Nearly 60 per cent of last year's total revenue was derived from commercial vehicles.

More Trucks
Using Highways

Harrisburg—More trucks are rolling on Pennsylvania's 41,000-mile State Highway System than ever before, according to preliminary estimates of 1953 motor vehicle registrations by the U. S. Department of Commerce.

It places the Pennsylvania total of trucks at 512,000, more than any other state in the Nation except California. New York drops into third place with 501,000 truck registrations expected this year.

In the number of passenger cars, Pennsylvania continues to rank third in the Nation with an estimated registration of 2,850,000. This is a gain of better than three per cent over 1952. California is first with New York second in this classification.

In 1952 Great Britain exported twice as many passenger autos as did the United States.

Annual Music Conference Slated Friday

The third annual music conference for elementary classroom teachers of the service area will be held Friday at the State Teachers College Auditorium. Registration begins at 9 a. m. and the conference formally opens at 10.

The program will consist of three sessions, a luncheon in the college dining room, choral selections by the College Glee Club, and exhibits of materials and equipment from book companies and musical equipment firms.

Miss Catherine A. Reimard, supervisor of fourth grade, Campus Laboratory School, will conduct a demonstration on "The Correlation Between Music and Other Areas of Learning in the Elementary School."

The second session will be a demonstration of "Class Piano Techniques" by Edward McGinley, author of "A Child's Introduction to Music" piano series.

Mrs. Fay Templeton Frisch, widely known lecturer and music educator will address the afternoon session on "Musicianship and Techniques in Early Training."

At the conclusion of her address, Mrs. Frisch will demonstrate important techniques and methods to be used with elementary school pupils. The remainder of the program will be reserved for discussion.

Dr. Donald B. Corson, chairman of the Music Department and Dr. R. William Graham, associate professor in the Music Department will preside at the sessions.

The public as well as all elementary teachers and administrators are invited to attend.
